Song Story.

This was written in North Carolina (USA) beside the Cherokee River in an RV park where the owner graciously allowed me to park my van overnight... a safe place for a few dollars. That morning I pulled out my guitar and wrote sketches for several songs, including this one, comforted by the rushing waters as I prayed and read God's Word.

That evening I arrived at my destination in Alabama, 16 hours earlier than expected.... and thus God enabled me to be in a safe location when the Day of Tornadoes happened the next day.

With many thanks to our Great Lord of All, having been honored with the gifting of 79 of His songs written and recorded through me and the 3 DiDoReflections studios in the time between then and now. At least, I think that's the number... I'm not bothering to count carefully anymore, God's giftings are so wondrously many and different.... evidences of HIS empowering, Ephesians 3;20 and Philippians 2: 13.
