Reading after Verse 3 + Chorus: Galatians 6: 2-6 NLT. Share each other's burdens, and in this way obey the law of Christ. 3 If you think you are too important to help someone, you are only fooling yourself. You are not that important.
 4 Pay careful attention to your own work, for then you will get the satisfaction of a job well done, and you won't need to compare yourself to anyone else.
 5 For we are each responsible for our own conduct.
 6 Those who are taught the word of God should provide for their teachers, sharing all good things with them.

Song Story Radio sermon parable reminded me of how much fun it was to watch OTTERS play in the Chattanooga Tennessee aquarium... I watched a LONG time, and they never seemed to get tired.... or to actually accomplish anything except play. And I wondered about how BEAVERS would feel if they thought like people... like Lazarus's "Busy Beaver" personality sister Mary wanting her "Otter" sister Mary to stop having fun & start doing work that Martha thought was more important: Serving Jesus instead of fervently listening to her LORD's words, even if it meant not getting any work done. Like an otter, enjoying just lightening up people's spirits. But God calls us to strengthen & encourage each other... Sometimes it's time to work. Sometimes, a SELAH time as Psalms describes.... a time to just STOP and be Quiet with God.
