READING 1: JESUS READING THE PROPHECY OF HIMSELF in the Temple as He began His ministry: [Isaiah 61:1]

“The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me, Because the LORD has anointed Me To preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, To proclaim liberty to the captives, And the opening of the prison to those who are bound;

1

At Your altar, God, where-ever it may be, I bend to You my head and heart, here on bended knees.
You're my only JOY.
You're my only LOVE.

At Your altar, LORD, I give to You my life. You gave Yours first, lifted my curse of sin on Your Cross.
You're my only HOPE.
You're my only LOVE.

This Life I give You. I'm weak and not real smart. Your Ephesians 3, verse 20 says You answer broken hearts.
You're my only TRUST.
You're my only LOVE.

READING 2: The LORD God sent His Son Jesus to preach good news to the poor, to heal the broken hearted, to proclaim LIBERTY to us, to open the prisons for those who are who are bound. Isaiah 61.

Song Story. Written in an hour based on a 2-1/2 year old draft. Written on knees. It gave me such joy to play the slide bass again... it had been awhile since I'd had time. Song was recorded & on Internet the next day, with Claxton's haunting percussion tracks and my breathy foundation track and oboe melody.
Inspirations from LORD God, with His Ephesians 3:20 empowering. The altar “wherever it may be” is the place we bow to Him.... sometimes we cannot be “at a church altar”... but God comes to meet us when we humble our hearts...
wherever we are.
