VERBAL: [PRAYERS TO GOD BASED ON SCRIPTURES]

From First John Chapter One, verse 2:

Help me, Lord, be a good witness FOR You through my acts.

2nd Corinthians 3:18, Help me reflect You and not cause others to think badly of YOU.

Help me to not embarrass YOU.

Song Story. Sometimes I joke with the guys in my two studios that I'm going to get "kicked out of church" with some of these songs from God. This version is mild compared to parts of original verses that I decided after prayers to omit – even though they are true examples... such as continuing the line "....things we do in church walls" to add examples – such as Pushing people to do things our way... calling gossip our 'prayer concerns'?"

And a Revelation 2:19-20 reference to Tolerance within churches; "suffered" = "tolerated" in verse 20... "Compassion" is not a reason to tolerate sin even while loving the sinner -- NOTE that God invited Jezebel --- verse 21. Ah well..... it's exciting to think that perhaps God's songs may make us more aware of how we offend Him and His Holiness even with our so-called "little sins." My own repeated giving in to a common sin actually made me open to this song-in-minutes from God.... It doesn't help when friends in church mean well and tell us, "oh, don't worry about it.... It's not important.... lots of people do that.... God will understand...." NO! 2nd Corinthians 3:18.... if we reflect God badly, even little things, we might hinder other people from coming to Him. Do we as individuals OR as churches focus on that Truth?
