Micah 7: 18-19 reminds us with this prayer:

"Who is a God like You, who pardons iniquity And passes over the rebellious act of the remnant of His possession? He does not retain His anger forever, Because He delights in unchanging love. He will again have compassion on us; He will tread our iniquities under foot. Yes, You will cast all their sins Into the depths of the sea."

PRELUDE - repeat; optionally repeat as a tag. Optional sing slower first & last time
EVERYTHING IS NOT ENOUGH to give You, LORD God.

Song Story.

Lyrics (chorus and verse 1) were a prayer written at the altar in minutes. Then I immediately went to the church piano, and LORD God gave me these ideas for the music --- including the old hymn to fit with the prayer.... as a prayer.....

I’ve been studying the Original Testament (O.T.) a lot, and had already noticed the patterns of how often chapter numbers in one book are on a topic related to chapter numbers in other O.T. books – especially Chapter 9, usually dire warnings to the assembly of people (nation).

So I’m not sure why this came to mind except the usual – the Holy Spirit’s inspiration – but it seemed pretty cool to me (with my poor memory that loves patterns!) to notice how these Chapters 29 are related to each other.

Scripture reference explanation of choice to not say “Old” Testament, as if useless: Matthew 5: 17 and 18, Jesus speaking: “Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach [them], the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.”

Can't get much clearer than that. The Original Testament laws of God are still to be respected as His HEART for what He wants us to do.... summarized as Loving God with all our heart.... and loving people..... Matthew 22:18 (Jesus speaking).
