“And what a difference between our sin and God's generous gift of forgiveness. For this one man, Adam, brought death to many through his sin. But this other man, Jesus Christ, brought forgiveness to many through God's bountiful gift. So just as sin ruled over all people and brought them to death, now God's wonderful kindness rules instead, giving us right standing with God and resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” Romans 5: 15, 21 New Living Translation

PART 1

1

How can we?

How can we?

How CAN we say “Christ Jesus died on a cross” with lack of true passion with which we might say:

“I went to the store today”?

2

How can we?

How can we?

How CAN we say “Christ Jesus rose from the dead” with lack of true passion with which we might say:

“I bought some fresh bread today”?

3

How can we?

How can we?

How CAN we say “Christ Jesus will come again” with lack of true passion with which we might say:

“I came home and put it away”?

Song Story. The original thought came while discussing upcoming Easter plans for our church's worship services, and a common liturgy (bulletin) sentence with a church friend. I blurted out,...."People tend to quote 'Christ died, Christ arose, Christ will come again' with the same passion as saying 'I bought some bread today.'"

Verse 4 References:

John 6:33, 35, and 49-51

"For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world. And Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst....I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world.' "

Verse 5 references:

Matthew 2:6. "But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, Are not the least among the rulers of Judah; For out of you shall come a Ruler Who will shepherd My people Israel."

John 10:14-16. JESUS- "I am the good shepherd; and I know My sheep, and am known by My own. As the Father knows Me, even so I know the Father; and I lay down My life for the sheep. And other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; and there will be one flock and one shepherd."

Hebrews 13:20- "Now may the God of peace who brought up our Lord Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant..."

1 Peter 2:25. "For you were like sheep going astray, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls."

1 Peter 5:4. "and when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that does not fade away. "
