"... Those who know Your name will put their trust in You;

For Dave and David

For You, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek You." -- Psalm 9:10

Song Story. This song was written after a rather frustrating morning trying to explain my excitement at God's love and mercy... to excitedly show that the world itself provides evidences that God exists... to a high school and college age Sunday School class full youth whom I dearly loved. Later I wrote this song using some examples that we used during class -- Some things in the science world we believe without understanding them. Some things in the math world we "just know" without knowing how we know them, except that our first teachers in school said "7+9=16" and we still believe them.

Romans 1:19-22 describes how God programmed the world to show all the evidences that He is. Psalm 19 (notice that "19" pattern) says the same:

"The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands. Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they display knowledge." WOW--

NOTICE THIS that I saw only as I typed, with the Holy Spirit's guidance to see:

Even God's heavens, skies, "JUST KNOW" and display that knowledge.
