Album: Amazing Psalms 'n' Promises

“Nevertheless the solid foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord knows those who are His," and, "Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from iniquity.”

--1 Timothy 2:19 NKJV

1

Make slow, O Lord, to deliver me.
Make slow to help me lest I drift from You and stop turning to You when I need help.

Be my Rock, Whom I must call “Lord!”

2

Psalmist David was great but His Psalm 70 is NOT a prayer You'll hear from me, for I trust in Your right Time to give me Your help.

Be my Rock, Whom I must call “Lord!”

BRIDGE

Yes! I do want a happy Life!
Yes! I want freedom from all strife!
Yes, I want money, and long life!

But I want God more than anything. so Make slow, O Lord, my Lord.

3

O let all who seek You rejoice in You, Lord. Help us love You continually..... Help us trust Your right Time to give help.

Be our Rock, Whom we must call “Lord!”

4

Make FAST all who seek You. Give us faith in Your Word. Strengthen us to just trust You lest we drift from You and stop turning to You when we need help.

Be our Rock, Whom we must call “Lord!”

CHORUS (hymn based on “How Firm a Foundation”, melody by John Rippon, Public Domain, CCLI #107816)

How firm a foundation God always provides to those who stand on God as OUR only Guide. He strengthens us, helps us to take a firm stand in God's holy righteous, all-powerful hand. [repeat]

(How Firm A Foundation)

MAKE SLOW O LORD (PSALM 70 REMIX). The 150 Psalms were all sung in David's time. I have been praying for more music to bring people back to worship God with His original song gifts. While researching Psalms, I found that David repeatedly prayed "Make HASTE" as he prayed for deliverance: 38:22, 40:13, 70:1 (twice, which is why that's the source for this song), 70:5 (plus "make no tarrying" in NKJV... I smile each time I see that wording), 71:12, and 141:1. I simply began considering that God

(1) loves us and

(2) knows what He's doing... and therefore

(3) why should we demand our own timing for deliverance?

TRUST in the Lord... Proverbs 3: 5-6

Often we learn something from trials, or the solution is not yet prepared. A prime example is DiDoReflections.com. God did not "make haste" to give me song gifts when I first asked...He waited for me to learn some lessons, for the time when I'd 'accidentally' find Strong Tower church where I met the producer of not just one but both DiDoR studios, where I met the Spanish translator, where I heard the sermons on the Prayer of Jabez that led me to pray, and more (see tab 'Resources/About DianaDee'). There's no need to beg God to "make haste" if His timing is knowing that it's best to

"Make Slow."
