Song Story. On the way to the gym, heard the radio talking about those tall nylon tubes of air that dance around with arms and a painted face with smile at so many stores... And learned that each is called a "noodle man" even though more like a wind sock than a piece of spaghetti. At the gym on elliptical machine, I filled 2 pages in small printing with these verses, except for the last few lines, 17-21, of the CHORUS. That night I typed it, ready to put on the World Wide Web the next day.
