Song Story.

I awoke at 4:30m in the morning ---- in the dark thanks to Hurricane Irene on the East Coast of the United States ---- with Movement 2 of this song in my head.
 As I wrote it out the "old way" without my computer and recording music program, God brought the idea of merging with this old hymn to my mind. For quite awhile I've been praying for more "Blended" songs, that merge the wonderful messages God shared with people years ago through old songs with new songs for His World. This song is most assuredly one of His Answers. Written with my humble thanks to Him.
