Psalm 147: 3 - 7

"The LORD, He heals the broken hearted, and binds up their wounds. He counts the number of the stars. He calls them all by name. Great is our Lord and mighty in power. His understanding is infinite. The LORD lifts up the humble.... Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving."

READING 1. After Verse 3:

"Come to Me, all ye who labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest."
 -- Jesus in Matthew 11:28.... a PROMISE from The Son of God to YOU too.

READING 2. After first time of CHORUS :

The BOOK OF NUMBERS, gets its name from the CENSUS results at beginning & end of book-- but unlike our modern version, the book is so long because it lists the NAMES of family heads. God's Bible / Torah gives ONLY the summary. The actual census results were indeed a list of more names than we see... names of individuals age 20 & up in what we call their genealogies – NOT just a bunch of counted numbers.

READING 3. After 2nd CHORUS: Isaiah 49:13, 15-16. "Sing, O heavens! Be joyful, O earth! And break out in singing, O mountains! For the LORD has comforted His people, And will have mercy on His afflicted... [saying] "Can a woman forget her nursing child, And not have compassion on the son of her womb? Surely they may forget, Yet I will not forget you. See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; Your walls are continually before Me."

Song Story. Psalm 147 was an “aha” moment for me at the beginning of the DiDoReflections Music Ministry – wondering why in the middle of a Psalm, God inspired the Psalmist to suddenly interrupt himself amid a sweet song about God helping the broken hearted to write “He counts the number of the stars. He calls them all by name.” ... WOW: Unlike in our modern world, we are NOT just a number to YHWH (Exodus 3:14), God The Creator.
