Song Story. I “just sat at the keyboard” of my studio and played the music base of this song's Part 1 into the computer one day. I didn't have any ideas yet on what to do with it, so I just tucked it into my “future songs” file location with the descriptive title UNTITLED IN F MAJOR SAD (descriptive obviously not meaning “creative” here!). In August, I began praying hard during a week-long retreat, to be able by God's empowering to begin filling in the “missing” Psalms for which I had not yet developed music for our LORD. And the idea for fitting Psalm 69 into this older music became this song. God's leading.
