REF: 9-320

“If I say, ‘My foot slips,’” Your mercy, O LORD, will hold me up. In the multitude of my anxieties within me, Your comforts delight my soul.... But the LORD has been my defense, and my God the rock of my refuge.” – Psalm 94: 18-19, 22

Psalm 73:2. “But as for me, I almost lost my footing. My feet were slipping, and I was almost gone....

verse 17, Then I went into your sanctuary, O God...”

Song Story. Never had I heard the phrase "slippery slope" referring to people slowly starting to give into temptations until I had begun to pray that God would use me to write music for His psalms again. (I'm excitedly thinking that, like Daniel 12:4 says, new discoveries in End Times especially in archeology might find some of the Psalmists' original music notes!). So when I read this phrase the same day way back in March 2011 in Psalms 94 and 73, I quickly wrote out my ideas for this song... Inspired at 5 AM and writing quickly lest I forget God's ideas before I put them on paper! Thanking Him!
