Psalm 98: Oh, sing to the LORD a new song! For He has done marvelous things...
The LORD has made known His salvation; His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations. He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the house of Israel; All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. 7 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness, The world and those who dwell in it; Let the rivers clap their hands; Let the hills be joyful together before the LORD, For He is coming to judge the earth. With righteousness He shall judge the world, And the peoples with equity.

Song Story. I was rather sad because I had only one new song for LORD God for my first studio session of the year 2014. The MORNING of that session, I was looking (and praying) through my computer folder of started music drafts-- and found a complete project never used. I prayed for a psalm to try to fit words with the music. I thought as I prayed,
"How about 98?" Looked it up -- the words fit PERFECTLY. And... I already had recorded Psalms 96, 97 and Psalm 99. God is finishing the series! I fit the words into the music in 1/2 hours and we recorded my vocals that night even though I had a bad cold - and put the draft on the World Wide Web the next morning. This entire work of DiDoReflections is GOD's evidence of how HE answers prayers when we yearn to serve Him. His Ephesians 3:20-21 empowering for HIS glory... not that of us little songwriters honored by Him.
