Song Story. On Dec 1st, I awoke long before the alarm clock rang, with the first lines of this song and the basic melody "in my head." The first draft piano and final flute and typed lyrics for verses 1 and 2 were recorded 27 minutes later. Perhaps it may bore some people to repeatedly say things, but I myself think it's exciting that "Always the Son" surprises me with creative music that I never would have dreamed of. Oh, wait ---- I DO dream of the music! So, correction -- God The Creator excites me with creative music far beyond my natural skills and my quite average intellect.

An important P.S: I completed the tracks preparation on Dec 5th for the next night's recording session in hours of heartbreak and discouragement and feeling unworthy of God's music gifting. SO many things were not working related to this music ministry.... dial-up internet connections, a website file-load error that's been ongoing for 9 months, a mysterious studio recording program error that keeps recurring.... Yet with God's help, I continued despite the anguish. I am absolutely convinced that the prayers of my many prayer partners support God's work despite all my faults and technological glitches. Thanking God...Because even when God seems hidden... He's here.
