“But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.”

-- 2nd Corinthians 3:18 (the theme verse for DiDoReflections)

OPENING ACT: Child 1:

Let's play outside.

We can play ball.

Stop copying me.

STOP IT!

You're stupid.

You're ugly.

Your daddy doesn't love you.

Why do we believe junk put in our mind
by people or pictures or Satan sometimes?
Don't look at your soul's mirror's big jagged cracks.
Believe what God says about cracks:
God easily fills all your cracks.
HOW DOES HE? You JUST NEED TO ASK!

Why do we just parrot thoughts that we hear?
Like that we're ugly or dumb, or filled with fear?
Don't focus on YOU but on God's Word to you.
God easily fills all your cracks.
HOW DOES HE? You JUST NEED TO ASK!

Do not believe all the thoughts in your mind.
Laugh off any thoughts that conflict with God's Word.
Almighty God has power to keep mistakes out.
GOD LOVES YOU DESPITE all your cracks.
WHY DOES HE? God's perfect -- no cracks!

Song Story. My brother David and I used to have fun playing the “echo” game... though we couldn't figure out why Mom and Dad thought we were really fighting, since we never called each other names like D.J. and Nate do in the “opening act” of this song. One day I was reflecting on the key verse for DiDoReflections and thinking of all my own faults (cracks) and how I don't reflect God. It suddenly dawned on me that God would be displeased to hear me really believing my thoughts about how stupid I was to take so long to learn something. About how dumb it was to care so much about my appearance. God's Holy Spirit Himself will help us to grow to reflect Him -- when we respectfully (and honestly) ask Him to. 2nd Corinthians 3:18. And when God's glory shines through us, people will see God -- not our human cracks!
