“He THE LORD YHWH gives power to the weak, and to those who have no might
He increases strength..... But those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength;
They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary,
They shall walk and not faint.” -- Isaiah 40: 29, 31 NKJV

Song Story. Lyrics set written on an elliptical machine. I pray as I drive to the gym, and my prayers were very low-hearted that morning. The day before, I'd had several medical tests under general anesthesia and the results indicated more to come. The day before, an important music program on my laptop completely quit working AND lost all the songs in the library. I had just joyfully completed all tracks for PSALM 4 PUTTING, but was discouraged that my 8-year-old Mac was down to 26 GB of space... and to update it would require an update to the simple GarageBand program I use to a huge learning curve for the modern version.... And I was just weary, discouraged, feeling that nothing I've done really serves God since it seems no one finds HIS songs... So: This song is a True Prayer. BUT SO IS its conclusion: God WILL lift our hearts, strengthen us, when we honor Him... We may be weary, but we can WAIT IN FAITH that God will keep His promises. Like Isaiah 40's end, God raises us up to soar like eagles Despite WHATEVERS.
