"You both precede and follow me. You place your hand of blessing on my head. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too great for me to know! I can never escape from your spirit! I can never get away from your presence! ... If I ride the wings of the morning, if I dwell by the farthest oceans, even there your hand will guide me, and your strength will support me." -- Psalm 139: 5-6, 8-9

Song Story

The first verse describes a crisp fall day as I called and called the kitties to keep me company as I read at the picnic table in the woods.

May this song bring you the joy of knowing: God's not calling you so He can put you on a leash, but to give You a warm, safe place in His "lap." From Psalm 116:6, 8: "The Lord protects the simple-hearted; when I was in great need, he saved me... You, O Lord, have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling,"
