Song Story. Inspired by glancing at the leather strap with a copper penny that I'd worn above my watch hand for over 3 years. I bought it at the ALIVE Christian Music festival in Ohio during those in-between weeks of a bad health test result and upcoming tests to see if I had the type of cancer that usually kills the person in less than 3 years after diagnosis....

The morning I wrote the lyrics and basic melody to this song, I remembered, with a smile, not just God's healing – but also the fact that, WITH His help: In God I trust. Even IF that summer's tests had revealed the opposite expectations. WITH His help: I'm still here to write this song declaring that you, too, can find Great Comfort in Trusting God without an IF.
