Album: Amazing Psalms 'n' Promise

READING 1: “A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD. Hear my prayer, O LORD, And let my cry come to You....”

-- Psalm 102 : 1 & 2a, New King James Version a prayer God hears from you, too.

1

Hear my prayer, oh LORD. Like Psalm One-hundred-two.

In my trouble, don't hide your face from me, oh, my LORD.

I feel so overwhelmed. My days drift by like smoke.

I know health won't last. And my heart feels so broken, O LORD.

CHORUS 1

I'm sick and troubled, yet I'm praising God every day of this earthly life.

I'm weak, yet trusting God Who answers prayers. Psalm 102, Just trust Go

2

God will have mercy. Psalm 102.

Nations shall learn to fear the LORD God's holy, Righteous Name.

Nations will give God glory God deserves.

God will raise Zion, and us, destitute and so troubled.

CHORUS 2

I'm tired and troubled, yet I'm praising God. God hears all of our humble prayers.

God releases those who once faced death. Psalm 102, verse 20.

3

God looks from above when people gather.

If He must, God gives troubles so we'll learn to trust LORD God.

God will give me strength. His power made all worlds.

They shall perish, but Loving God endures and answers prayers.

CHORUS 2

I'm tired and troubled, yet I'm praising God. God hears all of our humble prayers.

God releases those who once faced death. Psalm 102, verse 20.

FORESHADOWS of coming Jesus Christ! Foreshadows of coming JESUS CHRIST!

Song Story. No fancy song story! This is another song gift from God, almost quoting His long-published Words of Psalm 102, organized into a song at a music festival.

The day I wrote the music, October 8th, was a very upsetting day to me... so out of all my psalms drafts I had completed lyrics for during the summer, this Word of God was definitely a good choice for the day. And -- as always -- God comforted me even though these major troubles weren't immediately “fixed.”

Laughing at His inspiration of this song WITH its weird fills helped a lot!
