PSALM 119 LOVING LIVING WORD

† ZAYIN

7

49 Remember the word to Your servant, upon which You have caused me to hope.
 50 This is my comfort in my affliction, For Your word has given me life.
 51 The proud have me in great derision, Yet I do not turn aside from Your law.
 52 I remembered Your judgments of old, O Lord, And have comforted myself.
 53 Indignation has taken hold of me because of the wicked, who forsake Your law.
 54 Your statutes have been my songs In the house of my pilgrimage.
 55 I remember Your name in the night, O Lord, And I keep Your law.
 56 This has become mine, Because I kept Your precepts. (New King James Version)

Song Story. I was checking out my “untitled” folder... was interested in the studio file I'd done a few weeks earlier called “untitled Dm Rag”, with my piano on top of a canned drum loop. Started playing with the song. Completed the drums and bass. Corrected jazz timing for the piano; added sax track to guide me when I would be recording the vocals at the studio, since the melody is a bit tricky. Only after I finished the tracks did I pull out my Bible and ask God,

OK, what should I do with this? Since I had been working on the Psalm 119 series, 1-1/2 years after I first had the concept to do this (while in a summer-long Bible Study on this single Psalm)... I opened my Bible to Psalm 119. It fell to Zayin. The words fit the jazz meter. Added Rick Blankenship's Hebrew reading for this section. And thus God has guided yet another of His songs for His people that puts HIS Words to music. This is God's project that I am honored to develop under the Holy Spirit's guidance and empowering. -ddo
