First John 1: If I REFUSE to admit that I sin, then I am a LIAR (says God). Psalm 94: 18-19, 22 >> "If I say, 'My foot slips,'" Your mercy, O LORD, will hold me up. In the multitude of my anxieties within me, Your comforts delight my soul.... But the LORD has been my defense, and my God the rock of my refuge." Psalm 73:2. "But as for me, I almost lost my footing. My feet were slipping, and I was almost gone.... verse 17, Then I went into your sanctuary, O God..."

Song Story. I'd never heard the phrase "slippery slope" to refer to "people who slowly starting to give into temptations" -- not until right after I'd begun to pray that God would use me to write music for His psalms again. So when I read this phrase the same day way back in March 2011 in Psalms 94 and 73, I quickly wrote out my ideas for this song... Inspired at 5 AM, writing quickly lest I forget God's ideas before I put them on paper! Thanking Him!
