Song Story. This song was inspired as I fussed at myself. While waiting for a church worship service to start, I realized that the usual pastor was on vacation. And I suddenly realized that I was annoyedly muttering to myself that if the substitute pastor was a Mister (put name here), then I'd consider leaving the church early -- as soon as the music part of the service ended -- to miss that person's sermon. God brought to my mind that I was supposed to be there to worship God... not for my personal entertainment. So I humbly thank God still, years later, for forgiving my self-centered attitude, & I thank Him for this song that was inspired by my sin.
