Song Story. I'd been having trouble sleeping, so I put a mild video in to play... the droning voices lull me to sleep. As I awoke one morning, the first words I heard were of a detective saying to a sad person, “You changed history. How many people can say they've changed history?” And my INSTANT thought -- which I fervently believe was the Holy Spirit's inspiration -- is that EVERY ONE OF US can change the history of people's lives --- even just smiling at someone who is sad. Even just speaking to a child or teen in church to show that you consider them important, worthy of your time. For a more complete history, see the Music Sheet's Song Story.
